3. All recordings to be in MP3 audio formats ONLY. No identity is to be recorded in the audition or on file names.

4. No video recording will be accepted as this is an anonymous audition process.

5. Audio recording should be made in one take and unedited.

6. No editing to fix bad notes.

7. Do not electronically alter a recording.

8. Do not identify yourself in any way or speak on the audio recording only to introduce the title of the piece.

9. Any breach of itemised points in section 7 will result in an automatic disqualification.

Note: Production values of the recording will not be judged.

8. Selection Process

1. All entries will be subject to a preliminary judging round before the finalists are selected and presented to the final judging panel for adjudication which will take place during two (2) public concerts.
2. Six (6) Scholarship finalists will be selected from the preliminary judging round and must be available to attend the Generations in Jazz in Mount Gambier (SA) from Friday 1st to Sunday 3rd May 2025.
3. The number of scholarship finalists selected to attend may vary in number annually, according to Generations in Jazz capacity and focus, the level of demand and the quality of applications.
4. The panel/adjudicator's decision at both the preliminary audition and final adjudication (at the event) is final with no exceptions, and no correspondence will be entered into.

9. Adjudication Panel

1. To ensure that all applicants are assessed in a fair and equitable manner, Generations in Jazz will appoint an audition panel to assess the recorded auditions and selection of finalists.
2. The audition panel will consist of professional musicians and music educators.
3. The results of auditions are entirely confidential and will not be discussed outside Generations in Jazz, nor will they be made available to any other organisation.
4. The judging panel's decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.

10 Application Assessment Criteria

The applicants will be assessed on the following criteria:

- The performance clearly demonstrates the applicant's technical proficiency, stylistic awareness and emphasises their musicianship.
- The performer should aim for accuracy and precise rhythm.
- The performer should display good intonation and beauty of sound.
